This week we are called to remember God's call on our lives and to pray for everyone who seeks to respond. Please pray for Bishop Gregory, for all church leaders, lay and ordained, and for all who are exploring their vocation. Remember especially those preparing to be ordained as Priests and Deacons next month, particularly Cheryl Hesketh who will be coming as a deacon to the Llanrwst hub; those currently training as Priests and Readers; those already discerned to start training for ordination, and others still awaiting their panels for lay or ordained ministry. Please pray for them and for all discerning God's call.
